Gen. W. Bedell Smith, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear General Smith:

Before leaving on his trip with [redacted] [redacted] showed me your generous comment on my report on my trip. Naturally it was pleasing and reassuring to learn of your reaction.

STAT

In view of the prominent attention given to the Korean War during the last days of the election campaign, I believe that the successful candidate in tomorrow's election, whether it be General Eisenhower or Governor Stevenson, would find that report of some interest. Accordingly, I am taking the liberty of suggesting that you supply a copy to the winner, together with a copy of [redacted] comment, which I believe you also received from Karl.

STAT

I am addressing this suggestion to you because of your role as the supplier of intelligence reports to the two principal Presidential candidates. Governor Dewey has been reported as saying that in the event of his election, General Eisenhower will proceed to Korea almost immediately; it is for this reason that I make this suggestion to you at this stage.

Sincerely yours,

STAT
